CAMP DIRECTORS

John Olmanson, Head Volleyball Coach

The 2022 season marks Olmanson's 10th year as Bethany Lutheran College's head volleyball coach. In his time with the Vikings, he has coached five players that have received All-Conference honors. He brings with him a wealth of experience at the high school, club, and Junior Olympic levels.

Before starting with Bethany, Olmanson was the head coach of Como Park High School where his team went 10-2 in conference matches in his last year. He is owner and director of SPIKE Performance Camps and has a variety of coaching certifications from USA Volleyball. He stays very active with youth athletics in the Midwest region through athletic associations, camps, and clinics.

Olmanson is also the BLC Student-Athlete Advisory Committee (SAAC) Advisor. He enjoys working with representatives from each of Bethany's athletic teams. He resides in West St. Paul, Minnesota, with his wife of 24 years and his two daughters Emma and Olivia. He is a native of Nicollet and his father is a Bethany alumnus.

The coaching staff will consist of qualified volleyball personnel who work well with young players young players on a one-to-one basis.
